I feel just a little unclear
Gonna tell you what's on my mind
In your eyes I'm the perfect man
There's nothing further from the truth this time
My heart has been trampled on
My walls are reinforced with stone
There's nothing better than to hear your voice
It brings me back down to reality
It's where I see my mistakes bury me

(Chorus)

And I'm climbing out again
I'll be on my way to a different man this day
And I will always love you
I am on my way to a different man this day

I'm climbing out of this hole
Been down here for far too long
I never claimed to be the perfect man
It's no excuse for all I've done wrong
You're my soul, you're my pride
There's nothing better than to hear your voice
It brings me back down to reality
It's where I see my mistakes will bury me

(Chorus)

I feel just a little unclear
Gonna tell you what's on my mind
I feel just a little unclear

(Chorus)
