To wait for me would be like asking you to fail
I know this can't be your fate
I can't hold you back to truly feel happy for once
And bring a light to my darkest days
But I will miss your smile, your hair and your face
It drives me crazy
I know lately I've been out of my head

(Chorus)

My heart and my head say I want more There's nothing else worth fighting for
But I'm done here waiting on you Facedown so long, and I'm bending and bleeding for you
This time I'm strong, and I'm done here waiting

What's wrong is why I can't seem to help you along to try and feel real
Again
No more goodbyes
I said what I have left to say, and now it's time to walk away
But I will miss your smile, your hair and your face
It drives me crazy
I know lately I've been out of my head

(Chorus)

Oh no I won't back down
No I can't give in
I won't give in
Oh and it's been so long
It feels so wrong
It feels so wrong
