Da, da, da, da, da, da [x3]

We say we don't have room
In this corner view for two
So how about three?
But English Bay looks nice today
So, mm, what do you say?
The city life is like paradise
And the air it's loving tonight
But something inside said
To go for a ride
Just pick up, it's time to move on

You told me just to love that life
I gave it to you, find what's right
I'll show it to you just love life
It's alright

Da, da, da, da, da, da

If painted faces and
Sugar pop kids can dream
Then why shouldn't we?
The surf keeps raging
And we're just aging it seems
Just a little each day
Why would we wait for the right wave to brake
On the off chance we're already gone?
If love lasts hours and hurt grows flowers
It's all somehow meant to belong

You told me just to love that life
I gave it to you, find what's right
I'll show it to you just love life
It's alright

Oh, I've been looking for you girl
And I know you've been looking for me
Let's take colouring books
And a bag of those good looks
To the beach, and see what we see

See what we see

Da, da, da, da

There's so much strife for the afterlife
And when you get it, it's already gone
It's circumstance that we blame on chance
And it's chance that we take the blame on
Well life takes kicks and those politics
Watch the church, they're voting out God
We'll keep our reason and love each season
Of change as we just roll along

We're thinking just to love that life
I gave it to you, find what's right
I'll show it to you just love life
It's alright

Love that life
I gave it to you, find what's right
I'll show it to you just love life
It's alright

Love that life
I gave it to you, find what's right
I'll show it to you just love life
It's alright, it's alright, it's alright
