(Esoterical)

and i fight and i fall and then i scream and then i
crawl

(Esoterical)

Isn't this the part where the burning feeling loses
control for me

crawl

control for me

crawl

(jD)

Rest assured mother and father, your sons doing fine, stressed to death depressed in debt at the depth of regret, but mother and father rest assured, your sons doing fine, just a couple hard times, i'm trying to lay off the medication, i can swallow a handful with no effect, it's killin' me, but i love it when my liver burns my flesh, lay in a tub and laugh, capsules under the faucet, fade away the colors, problems lock in a closet, i can't stand, my head beats for days, i can't beat the pain, i never have, i've never had a drink, never been tipsy, i never will, truthfully, it really ain't me, scar X's on my hand like a hypocrite, the world confesses all to Daniel like a hypnotist, Dad you can drink it down, but anger is all you got, I'll take your advice, and grow up to be whatever the fuck you're not

control for me

crawl

crawl

(Esoterical)

Well I stand by, feelin pathetic and sober, so I take a bottle, take a swallow, and follow my hopes to nowhere, 80 proof and 40 percent of my problems are getting lost in the process of temporary memory loss, as I bury every heavenly thought, sit back and take another shot, and take another shot and just let my body drop, It's like my static, or really just another escape, a friend to numb the days that take too much for me to face, so I forget, and get lost in my decadence, and waste a night to let clear liquids kill my consciousness, screaming at the walls as if they could fucking listen, too drunk to think, I can't even remember what I was even missing, I'm sitting, waiting, wishing for good luck to kick in, It's morning and I'm making confessions to the porcelain, I wanna quit, just to say I don't have an addiction, the hang over hits, and I'm

almost convinced that I could follow through with it, my solutions only make me sick, my caustic thirst eventually hits quick, and I'm craving it like an addict, I'm panicked, holding a bottle choking to swallow, the burning feeling follows, as I become another form of tragic.

control for me
crawl

control for me

Isn't this the part where i stand by and watch the world fall

I'm fallin' fallin' apart, i'm fallin apart

(Esoterical)

I don't glorify what i do to escape, but i don't completely regret it either. It's like Oscar Wilde said, "To regret one's own experience is to arrest one's own development. To deny one's own experience is to put a lie into the lips of one's life. It is no less than a denial of the soul."
