There is a demon drinking communion wine
There is a mockery in the public eye
It crossed
Crossed out every line

I see the battleships breaking up the coast
Here comes the father
Son but where's the holy ghost
He lined
Lined up every road

You're bleeding
I'm believing
He's selling you lies and death after life

There is a bullet preaching Middle Eastern skies
There is a reason but there is no reason why
He stole a million alibis

I hear a whisper humming on the urban streets but it's so quiet
Like a disease
His crime
God save us please

You're bleeding
I'm believing
He's selling you lies and death after life

There is some new blood burning kingdom come
There is a patriot taking away your freedom
There is an old war with a brand new gun
There was a righteous man but now he's on the run
Look out
Here comes the black ghost's son

You're bleeding
I'm believing
He's selling you lies and death after life
