I never believed in happy endings
I've never met a Prince Chatring
And there's no silver lining or even a chance
Of flying in the real world.

So why does every book or movie
Show you how life could never be
Lead you to believe that there's always a happy ending
Well not in the real world.

Down here we stumble and fall gosh damn
I've seen it all from starven children to People who just wont listen.
Grown men crying, Beesst friends dying.

why does every book or movie
Show you how life could never be
Lead you to believe that there's always a happy ending
Well not in the real world. ( X2)

Ohh noooo Not in the real world!!
