I miss our conversations at that park picnic table
That sat in the middle of our grandma's apartments.
I miss the way you smile, the way you say my name
Oh god knows that with out I'll never be the same.

How I wish we were sitting there talking again,
You reaching over holding my hand. Despite all
The things we've done I want you to know,
Untill the day I see your face again you'll Always be my bestfriend.

I text you that day to say you if you were okay,
Sprawled out on the bathroom floor I knew you were
With out lord and that you'd never text me back!

Oh how I wish we were sitting there talking again,
You reaching over holding my hand, despite all the things
I've done I want you to know. Until the day I see your face again.
Ohhh untill the day I see your face again.
You'll always be my bestfriends.

The day they laid oyu in the ground is the day my life changed.
So on top of your box, is where I laid my favorite ring.
