Holding hands down by the shore
And I know God knows it feels so fine
Holding hands down by the shore
And I know God knows it feels so fine

I said I loved you
I said I loved you

Holding hands down by the shore
Leaned over and whispered in your ear

But I lied
I lied

I couldn't love you if I tried

Holding you in my arms
In my bed God knows it feels so fine
Holding you in my arms
In my bed God knows it feels so fine

I said I loved you
I said I loved you

Holding you in my arms
In my bed I whispered in your ear

But I lied
I lied

I feel so dead inside
I couldn't love you if I tried
