"Drag Me Out Alive"

Your love falls heavy on my heart and I'm so enticed by your beauty.

We tell your tales and let our voice be yours

Our voice be yours.

Rest.

God you save me these demons are tearing me apart,
oh you save me, drag me out alive, oh you save me
brace myself for the worst, oh you save me drag me
out Alive.

Your lust falls on everything we love and were so enticed, by temptation, and your hate never lets go, nor your watch on.

Rest.

God you save me these demons are tearing me apart,
oh you save me, drag me out alive, oh you save me
brace myself for the worst, oh you save me drag me
out Alive
