You fell down the stairs, been done before
Stuck to the seats like caramel, caramel

No word is spoken, try, act serene
Stuck on each other like caramel, caramel

Red splendor above my head
The ugly, the bad and the good
I saw you projected there
On canvas oil of blood

World where have you gone watch them leaving
Stuck on somebody else like caramel, caramel

Red splendor above my head
The ugly, the bad and the good
'Cos I saw you projected there
On canvas oil of blood

Strung out on each other's lines
Heroes with an edge
'Cos I saw you projected there
But it didn't make any sense

Caramel, caramel, caramel
