Hey Mr. Devil man, you say I can run, but I can't hide,
Don't wanna hang with you, man I got my pride.
You can no longer tempt me with your evil ways,
There might have been a time, but today is not your day.

Go away Mr. Devil man, I won't play your game,
In my life Mr. Devil man you will never reign.
Lots of people follow you, them you have deceived,
But when they get Christ in their lives, they will be set free.

You want me to be something I just can't be,
Being like you is something I just can't see.

You can't catch me, when God is on my side.
You can't catch me, by His words I will abide.
You can't catch me, you'll never get your way.
You can't catch me, From Him I'll never stray.

Hey Mr. Devil man, I may be down, but I'm not out,
Forgiving and forgetting is what it's all about.
I confess to Jesus, my sins he sees no more,
With Him on my side, what do I need you for?

Hey Mr. Devil man, you can be on your way.
Hey Mr. Devil man, you'll always remember this day.
The day Mr. Devil man, I couldn't hear what you say.
The day Mr. Devil man, you didn't get your way.

You can't catch me, when God is on my side.
You can't catch me, by His words I will abide.
You can't catch me, you'll never get your way.
You can't catch me, From Him I'll never stray.
