well piece by piece, and nail by nail it'll all come down someday before the fires of hell you let me in your house (x3) with a hammer

set to drywall, set to stone tit for tat, and bone for bone now gone to set fire to your glamour well it's now rock that candy shop (x3)

set it on fire run away and watch it burn I've gone to set fire to your glamour

rock that candy shop (x3)
set it on fire
run away, watch it burn, smell the ashes in the art of this silly game well-shut to tire well you let me in your house yes you let me in your house pretty mama you let me in your house (x2) with a hammer

well I've gone to set fire to your glamour, yes to your glamour listen to me mama to your glamour to your glamour

ow, let it rock listen to me now, let it rock let it rock now, mmm rock that candy shop
