Take it back to her (take it back to her) To give it a chance I'll miss it its everyone take the moment by take it back from her shake it back from her Singingly shared IF you didnt learn we'll kill you We'll kill you I'll miss it its everyone this may or may not be a picture that you recognize she did that from seeing his face we lay before you with all the emptiness that eats your life drop your anchor down, and stay in place the only way I know to make you the only way I know to make you is to let you know that I know send it back to her to give it a chance take it this time all regrets are scared the port has a seam ripped wide open don't hesitate (don't hesitate) to crawl inside spend all your time in a sound byte and never learn to live your life don't be held in a grip society, intention build up it will kill you i confess it was me i'm crawling backward what it does to you, is not the news take it back to her to give it a chance take a moment by awkward moment on stage this may or may not be a story that you recognize she did that from seeing his face we stand before you with all the emptiness that eats your life drop your anchor down, and stay in place

stay in place
