it's making me nervous
how every day feels the same
meet my phantoms
they never seem to want to go away so they stay
i found a good place for everyone to come and rest all i ever wanted
is for everyone i know to come and rest
meet my phantoms
meet my phantoms
meet my phantoms
meet my phantoms

hide your body
i tainted your soul
why are you trying to steal my thoughts before they
form
before i _____

if everything's fine then why _____
hide your body
fall right in sure it's more than love and go, than love and go beware your pride
use your time

wasted life
feel the music change your mind
where's your body
where's your soul
wasted life
where's your body
where's the soul
sure it's more than love and go, than love and go

wasted time
feel the music change your mind
where's your body
