Coming home just to find her in bed
"I'm crazy for love", that's the last thing she said
Covered in colors, red, white and blue
This is the last time I'm nobody's fool

Look at me, I'm talking to you
The streets are busy but I got nothing to do
Some are scared and some don't care
This is the last time I'm nobody's fool

Ooh Diana, why don't stay with me tonight?
Ooh Diana, you always leave in the morning light
I, I know it's me you're looking for
Oh, oh, oh Diana, you never play by the rules
'Cause you're nobody's fool

Full of grace that's not what I see
I see a girl full of misery
I told myself now I'm telling you
This is the last time I'm nobody's fool

Ooh Diana, why don't stay with me tonight?
Ooh Diana, you always leave in the morning light
I, I know it's me you're looking for
Oh, oh, oh Diana, you never play by the rules
'Cause you're nobody's fool

Ooh Diana, why don't stay with me tonight?
Ooh Diana, you always leave in the morning light
I, I know it's me you're looking for
Oh, oh, oh Diana, you never play by the rules

Ooh Diana, ooh Diana, ooh Diana
You never play by the rules
'Cause I, I know it's me you're looking for
Oh, oh, oh Diana, you never play by the rules
'Cause you're nobody's fool
