Working for another hour tonight
Staring at the wall and let the time just pass me by
You may think you know me but it's all just the face
Trying to ignore when people screaming my name

Walking by your house, we cut off the lights
There's a sign, an invitation from the woman inside
Talk about your boyfriend, talk about your wife
It's just a different way of living your life

When something's right
There's something is worth to die for
When I feel that something is wrong
That something is worth to fight for

Don't say goodbye
Just leave a note and go
I wanna hear you say
You give me something to die for

Searching for another reason to stay
Slowly my regrets, I'm fading away
You leave on my own to find what is real
You say you want your freedom but it's not how I feel

When something's right
There's is something is worth to die for
When I feel that something is wrong
That something is worth to fight for

Don't say goodbye
Just leave a note and go
I wanna hear you say
You give me something to die for

When I feel that something is right
You give me something to die for

When something's right
There's is something is worth to die for
When I feel that something is wrong
That something is worth to fight for

When something's right
There's something is worth to die for
When I feel that something is wrong
That something is worth to fight for

Don't say goodbye
Just leave a note and go
I wanna hear you say
You give me something to die for

I wanna hear you say
You give me something to die for
I wanna hear you say
You give me something to die for
