I've been staring at you too long, I just want somebody to take care of me.

As usual nobody pay attention, burn down your house
and let's have my apprehension.

Mistakes, I make everything mistakes, but it changes
so easily from love to hate.

You can put me in a box and keep me there, i won't be bothering you I swear.

I feel sorry for my self, I'm a nervous wreck.

I can't be your dancepartner at the discoteque.

Wrong, it feels so wrong, so wrong.

You belong, you belong to me, to me.

I'm strong, I thought I was strong so strong,
but how I was wrong.

I was so wrong, so wrong, so wrong.

You're cast all day, you're punctually late,

I haven't feel I've made mistakes, you burned out my brakes.

I can walk like never before, i will grow up till my head beats no more.

Mistakes, I make everything mistakes, but it changes
so easily from love to hate.

Wrong, it feels so wrong, so wrong.

You belong, you belong to me, to me.

I'm strong, I thought I was strong so strong,
but how I was wrong.

I was so wrong, so wrong, so wrong.
