I tried to help
You to succeed
Gave you your warmth
And supplied all your needs

Each day I pray
That you're OK
In every way
Being all you can be
Cause there's so much
To learn
And there's so little time
Before your life slips away
Yeah,
But there's one place you can be safe

Yes, you have a place in my heart
No matter where you go
It's never too far
Yes, you have a place in my heart
Even if you go astray
All you have to do is come back home
You know, you have a place in my heart

Now that you're grown
And on your own
Don't feel like you
Are there all alone
No matter what
You're going through
A mother's love
Will always comfort you

Cause there's so much

To learn
And there's so little time
Before your life slips away
Yeah,
But there's one place you can be safe

Yes, you have a place in my heart

No matter where you go
It's never too far
Yes, you have a place in my heart
Even if you go astray
All you have to do is come back home
You have a place in my heart
You have a place in my heart

No matter where you go
Yes you have a place in my heart
No matter where you go
It's never too far
Yes, you have a place in my heart
Even if you go astray
All you have to do is come back home

You have your own place
Right here
If you've done wrong, that's alright
You're never alone. Come on home
Yes, you have a place in my heart
No matter where you go
It's never too far
Yes, you have a place in my heart
