looking like a virgin walking like a virgin as you like i feel your eyes on me talking like a virgin i know what a virgin has deep in has deep inside, yeah

everybody ask me everybody want my virgin style i'll never let them know what I feel deep inside

'cause i'm feeling like a virgin there's nothing else that I can do to say what I feel
'cause I'm feeling like a virgin
nobody else I know
can feel the same that I feel screaming at the moonlight writing for the final while wedding, that wedding I dream wishing for my blue prince wishing that he knocks at my heaven it shouldn't be

to say what I feel
'cause I'm feeling like a virgin
