we're safe here tonight like stars in the sky the world just sleeps around us the starlight still surrounds us as we kiss tonight i'll hold your hands in mine we've made it through these darkened days and nothing else can break us cause we try.. so hard we're waking up the satellites and all the stars that shine so bright with all of that surrounds you with all of that surrounds you will still be mine just go, there's nothing left to say is it leaking through the window while everyone is sleeping and their ways will go where no one else can find this place is where we're hiding from yeah, you're still safe beside me and we try.. so hard
we're waking up the satellites

just wake me from sleeping and i'll touch your pale skin and pretend that it's all.. starting over we're waking up the satellites
all of that surrounds you will still be mine we're waking up the satellites
the stars shine bright
the satellites
the stars so bright

with all of that you will still be mine
