* If this was the last day on earth
You know I'd be right there with you
Right to the very end

If this was the coldest day on earth
You know I'd be right there with you
Just to keep you warm and dry

And if you were lost in space
You know I'd be the first one
To come and rescue you

 And you know I want to share it all with you
You know that no one else on earth will do
I need you till the end of time
So please say you'll be mine
And you know I want to share it all with you
You know that no one else on earth will do
I need you till the end of time
So please say you'll be mine
Please say you'll be mine

* Repeat

And if you were locked away
You know I'd spend eternity
Just trying to set you free
