When the doors shut don't worry bout me,
Its not attention that I want from you.
Need you to trust, who Im gonna be,
And in everything Im going to do.
Cause Im not afraid of what I don't know
For understanding is all that I yearn.
What is for sure is Im gonna go,
Im going to live and Im going to learn.
And I know there will be mistakes that I will make.
But, I know that none are worse than chances I don't take.

Right before your eyes I am changing, changing.
You laugh on the inside, I am changing, changing.

When the door shuts, shuts finally.
A new person that I have become.
Ill follow my heart to my destiny.
Living in fear and the sorrow is done.
There will be no more feeling that I know.
I will surround my self with things that help me grow, grow.

Right before your eyes I am changing, changing.
You laugh on the inside, I am changing, changing.

When the door shuts don't worry bout me.
Need you to trust who Im going to be.
When the door shuts don't worry bout me.
Need you to trust who Im going to be.

Right before your eyes I am changing, changing.
You laugh on the inside, I am changing, changing.
Right before your eyes I am changing, changing.
You laugh on the inside, I am changing, changing.
Right before your eyes I am changing, changing.
You laugh on the inside, I am changing, changing.
