What are you doing here?
Nobody wants you dear
Contribute only stories of my folly and fear
What are you doing babe?
Nothing much left to say
If not for me, you're nothing
So I'll treat you that way

I thought that this would end easily
Don't look at me that way
I leave you behind
I need some time to think
Should have turned you away
Face so emotionless
After the first time
You can't even blink

Please act like you know these people
Please act like they know you too
Trust me if it can down to choice
It will not be you

What are you doing here?
Nobody wants you dear
Contribute only stories of my folly and fear
What are you doing babe?
If not for me, you're nothing
So I'll treat you that way

Act like you know these people
(I treat you this way)
Act like they know you too
If it came down to choice
Trust me it won't be you

Please act like you know these people
Please act like they know you too
Trust me if it came down to choice
It won't be you

Please act like you know these people
Please act like they know you too
If it came down to choice
Trust me baby, it won't be you
