Remove your disguise
With your corruption and lies
Remove your disguise
Or we will take your eyes

We never wanted more
We never needed more
We're looking down on (self) control

With no sight
No sight to see the light
Or to know what is right
There's no point to your life
This is why we don't play with
Hand grenades and knives
We'll light up the skies
Remove your disguise

We never wanted more
We never needed more
We're looking down on (self) control

With no sight
No sight to see the light
There's no point to your life
We will take your eyes
There is no point to your life

Where is your heart?
Stop hiding behind those blackened eyes
Stop hiding behind
