Lost in a bereavement
My whole life is a regret
I'm so ashamed of living
Of denying

I'm still looking for
The reason why you left me
But all the ways are blurred
All hope has gone

I've been denying these memories
Your silence still remains
Crying my pain on your grave
I give you my last silent cry

Break the silence
And erase the past
Try to forget this life
Refuse the truth

Push back all my fears
And dry all my tears
I'm not doing away with myself
I just need help

I've been denying these memories
Your silence still remains
Crying my pain on your grave
I give you my last silent cry
