I'm in someone else's mind
Don't know what I'm trying to find
Like a picture on the wall
Waiting for my face to fall
I'm in someone else's mind

I'm in someone else's mind
It ain't easy, it ain't kind
I'm a person you don't know
And sometimes it hurts me so
That I'm in someone else's mind

In someone else's mind
Is not exactly where I wanna be
In someone else's mind
Is not exactly what I wanted you to see
From how it used to be

In someone else's mind
Is not exactly where I wanna be
In someone else's mind
Is not exactly what I wanted you to see

From how it used to be
From how it used to be
From how it used to be
From how it used to be
From how it used to be
