Children, this is what I say
You've got freedom
Well, don't throw it away

You've got one, you've got two
You've got three dimensions to go
So keep the line movin' again

Children, it's gonna be alright
You gotta feed 'em
'Cause it's five thousand this time

You've got one, you've got two
You've got three, you've got four directions to go
So keep the line movin' again
Keep it movin' again

You've got one, you've got two
You've got three, you've got four
You've got five elements to know
Anywhere you try to go

Well, this is the air you breathe
It's fire, wood, water and steel
So children com on
Keep the line movin' again

Keep it movin' again
Keep it movin' again
Keep it movin' again
