We fly so high to see it all, you've made it clear
We pass the test to prove it all, you've made it clear
And tomorrow we all will be so much better
For what you borrow you just won't keep forever

When you're gone to never disappear
Gone to never disappear
When you're gone to never disappear within

We change the sounds of what we know, you've made it clear
And we turn around to watch it grow while you're not here
But tomorrow we will be all together
'Cause what we borrow we just won't keep forever

When we're gone to never disappear
Gone to never disappear
When we're gone to never disappear, my friend
