They say, we're overrated
By the things we do
They say, we're all backdated
Well, you know it's true

Life is not calling for you
When you don't know
Where you belong into this world

They say, we're complicated
Well, I don't know why
And they say, we're all forsaken
Well, at least I try

Life is not calling for you
When you don't know
What turns you on into this world

We're coming out of nowhere
And we've got nothing to lose
'Cause you can't see what you are
And you don't know what to do

Well, life is not calling for you
When you don't know
Where you belong into this world

I thought, I was somebody
I thought, I had it made
And I thought, I knew someone
Who could take me away

But life will be calling for me
But I don't think it's today
So please wash me away
