I am not as appearance; I am not.

Hence I am not forsaken; I don't claim

Deity.

Still crying out in pain, I cry in vain.

.and not present.

Despite my absence, future dies.

Despite my knowledge, present was.

My only resistance is the past.

No way to fight the future.

I am not as appearance; I was none.

Henceforth I was the fallen, maybe God?

I burst out in anger as instants leave

Behind.

I will revolt the future.
