Can someone explain me who you are?
Can someone explain me what for you are?
Can someone explain me why'd you gave me life
Life I hadn't deserved?

Can someone explain me who you are?
Can someone explain me what for you are?
Can someone explain me why'd you gave me life
Life I hadn't deserved?

Father, who you are?
Will I ever see your face?
Father, where you are?
Will I ever see your face?

Your shadow in the dark place
Crushing silence with your words
I'm just a child who wants your love
You smile and everything what was breathing tell

Father, who you are?
Will I ever see your face?
Father, where you are?
Will I ever see your face?

Father, father
Father, who you are?
Will I ever see your face?
Father, where you are?
Will I ever see your face?

Father
