"All In For Nothing"

Take your side, explain your rights
Breathe life in silent types
You might not
Breathe life in silent types
You might not
Get the chance
To take it second time around
Your future in this town
Has suffered even now
You breathe it all in for nothing I bet
Searching wide spaces for something my friend
Take your side, explain your rights
Breathe life in silent types
You might not
Breathe life in silent types
You might not
Get the chance
To take it second time around
Your future in this town
Has suffered even now
You breathe it all in for nothing I bet
Searching wide spaces for something my friend
You breathe it all in for nothing I bet
Searching wide spaces for something my friend
I stole your chances
