We fall out
We fall in
Creature comfort me
Stay for a bit

You grow up
The sun is in
And you know what you decide
Could change everything
It always has

(If you feel a little farther away
Don't beat yourself up)

No one is there
To answer your pain
We all have our hurts
Could all use a friend
But not before we set things straight
You owe yourself the chance to change today

You call up
I give in
My hands are tied
I'm not helping things

Through all this
There must come days
When you get closer to
Understanding why
I can't see you

(if you feel a little farther away
Don't beat yourself up)

No one is there
To answer your pain
We all have our hurts
Could all use a friend
But not before we set things straight
You owe yourself the chance to change today

I know you care
But I won't be there

I wish you safe return
Don't beat yourself up

Don't beat yourself up
