"Live Between the Lines"

Visit "Live Between the Lines" on MotoLyrics.com

Just rely, feels like saving time
In your eyes, we slowly fall behind

Does anybody rule your life

Back again but not worth craving
Reached a point it's overtaken
Back again but not worth craving
Reached a point where no one's blaming you

Does anybody rule your life
A right to live between the lines

So decide leave an open mind
Slowly bide, ever changing tides

Does anybody rule your life

Back again but not worth craving
Reached a point it's overtaken
Back again but not worth craving
Reached a point where no one's blaming you

Does anybody rule your life
A right to live between the lines

Back again but not worth craving
Reached a point it's overtaken
Back again but not worth craving
Reached a point where no one's blaming you
