Senseless seeings
Realized beings
Watch me, around here
A square there but be near

What you are is measured in ways
I can't explain
Not always at times that you may Need explaining

Cuts through the air like
A bad light but not to spite
Hold up an old friend
And use him to mend these trends

Listen now, it's coming in loud
I can explain
It's just that I see what is plain
And you are safe

Mend these trends
Mend these trends
Mend these trends
Mend these trends
