Pieces of a dream
Return to me,
Help me sleep
By the time you catch the faded lines
It's gone
Bring me one step closer to God
Maybe not
The situation systematically falls apart

I'll make such a son to the sun
And play my part before it's gone

Buy myself some sense
Blow it all on greed
It's only time before you govern me
I insist
Take a step back
God you're feeling wise
It's not wise
Misinformed that I wasn't living for myself

I'll make such a son to the sun
And play my cards before it's gone

All was white
In a certain light
When she took the knife and her own life
All was white
In a certain light
When she took the knife and her own life
