I don't have a problem in staking a claim
While all the time they go changing signs
Give us the right means to run on it's own steam
Finding the time you change the signs
Gotta run on time
Change this old mind
What a life yeah you'll find
I don't remember being a face on your wall
For all your sins
You do it with style and a grin
I don't have a problem in staking a claim
While all the time they go changing signs
Give us the right means to run on it's own steam
Finding the time now change the signs
Gotta run on time
Change this old mind
What a life yeah you'll find
I don't remember being a face on your wall
For all your sins
You do it with style and a grin
You light up the old red face i've seen
You light up the old red face i've seen
And I don't have a problem
I don't have a problem
