I don't need what they sell on TV,
I don't need it to be happy
I don't believe everything that I read
I don't need it to be happy!
I don't need to be one with the stars
In the Hollywood map, flying my precious cars
And I won't be like the people I see
All the fishy... at me!

But I need something I don't what it is!
I need something, but I don't know what it is!

I don't need to be one..
Raping all that I see, taking more than I need!
I want be sold for a handful of dough
Down on my knees doing all that I'm told!

I can't see the American dream
Tortured and beat into something obscene
It's no more right, no more wrong,
There's no fight left,
Nowhere I belong!

But I need something I don't what it is!
I need something, but I don't know what it is!
I need, I need, I need,
I need something, but I don't know what it is!
I need something, but I don't know what it is!
I need something, but I don't know what it is!
