I can't leave your side again
My darling ah my darling
If even for seconds
I live in you when you are far from me
Truly, yes, truly
And I miss your eyes
My darling you are the one for me from everyone in this world
Oh beloved of my heart and eyes my soul is in you
I am at ease when you are in my embrace
Come close to me and take me
Your eyes always tell me 'I'm all yours'

Always around me and in my eyes
My darling ah my darling
Always on my mind
Living in my dreams and everything I say
Truly, yes, truly
Your image is in front of me
