From that night when you came Pacing back and forth in the rain Couldn't maintain A young man trying to make a way But was forced to stay away When you touched Earth On that special night of your birth Please, accept my apology Desiree I was in boot camp baby, US Navy Yeah I sold out for a minute 'Cause life I just couldn't win it And I ask my lieutenant Please, let me witness my first Don't let me miss part of being Co-creator of heaven's work All about you Don't weary Desi, I got you Never, forgot about you Always in my thoughts, always in my prayers Sometimes life just ain't fair Beautiful Desiree Dear Desiree The letters I sent you they came back The gold chain I got you came back Why's your momma actin like that Kept us at a distance Missing you on Christmas Darling Desiree, I know that one day We will have a laugh, share a cry One day before I die Sometimes two people just can't get along Me and your mom fought all night long And every day A stressful way To live life So I did what I thought was right Yeah I skipped out Packed up my things as if I didn't care about This life that I helped to bring out In this world Either that, or spend time in jail Domestic violence, this life's a hell An empty shell But love will prevail Love child Desiree Your heart, has to be empty too You gotta feel the love I have for you Dear daughter Desiree Did you know I named you You're my wish come true I love you Baby, understand Music is how I stand How I preach, reach and teach Touch each and every soul Without it I'm cold Without it I grow old And stand still Never know my true will Which is to speak the word Of the Divine spark of light In the name of ? Desiree You know you got a brother now Eyes and smile like mine, like ours My love grows more As time grows more As life grows more Dearest daughter Desiree Love always Daddy PS, I love you
