"As You Dream"

Visit "As You Dream" on MotoLyrics.com you've got your whole life ahead of you don't you get caught in the masquerade you're going to find the surprise in the crackerjack box is a useless thing close your eyes forget all the worrying dream sweet dreams about all the things you can be pull me close I'll be here when you awake when you're off in unconsciousness I'll be here watching you sleep

and in the aftermath of your slumber I will sit and watch you wake you've got your whole life ahead of you don't you get caught in the masquerade
