Rationality Does no good for this abstract memory still threatening to drown these sentimental feelings pushed by selfish reasons and lack of selfless reasons abstract memories embracing and dancing with persistence of abstract reasoning rational decisions blinded by the insight of abstract reasoning, perceptions in the way as the soul becomes water you still seem so content with this though this deep blue grows calmer, still threatening to drown open eyes giving into the reason memories giving into the reason rational giving into the reason say good-bye giving into the reason drown these memories to cleanse this reasoning so long and good-bye
