(verse)

So you seem to have no friends
Your boyfriend just dumped you
For your brother
But who really cares
Well i guess you do
Your life really suxs
What will you do

(chorus)

You need to get right up and show that your stronger
You'll be fine now the worlds not against ya
You'll be alright, hold your head high
You'll be ok

(verse)

What the hell was i thinkin
The world really hates you
Have you even a clue
The guy you smiled at
Just committed suicide
Your to sensitive
Do you ever not cry

(chorus)

You need to get right up and show that your stronger
You'll be fine now the worlds not against ya
You'll be alright, hold your head high
You'll be ok

(verse)

Ok, you really need a life
Playing barbies isn't cool
No wonder your folks are gone
And those clothes
Spandex went out years ago
Your to old for hi-five
And the wiggles

(chorus)

You need to get right up and show that your stronger

You'll be fine now the worlds not against ya
You'll be alright, hold your head high
You'll be ok

(verse)

Maybe i was wrong
Who really cares about looks
Well maybe everyone
But where would we be
Without geeks and nerds
The world would be skankville
So be who you are

(chorus)

You need to get right up and show that your stronger
You'll be fine now the worlds not against ya
You'll be alright, hold your head high
You'll be ok
You'll be ok
