As in a dream love appeared
Swept me away and made me loose control
Like never before.

As in a dream love touched me,
Felt how it touched the bottom
Of my very soul.

Now I know you are the key to my heart,
I just hope you're not a dream
And that you are reality.

I admit I fell for you so badly,
And I admit you make my senses wild.
I know (that) sometimes I am looking foolish
I admit, I admit
I'll be your fool
As long as you are mine, yes mine, just mine.

It's good to be in love.
It makes you touch the sky
A thousand times or more.
It's good to admit,
That my heart starts to race
when you walk through that door.
Now I know you are the key to my heart,
I just hope you're not a dream
And that you'll be my everything!

I admit I fell for you so badly!
And I admit you make my senses wild.
I know (that) sometimes I am looking foolish,
I admit, I admit
I'll be your fool
As long as you are mine, yes mine, just mine.
I admit I fell for you so badly!
And I admit you make my senses wild.

I know sometimes I might act and look foolish,
I admit, I admit
I'll be your fool
As long as you are mine, yes mine, just mine.

You make me shine,
You are the light in my life.

I admit I fell for you so badly!
And I admit you make my senses wild.
I know (that) sometimes I am looking foolish,
I admit, I admit
I'll be your fool
As long as you are mine, yes mine, just mine.

I admit I fell for you so badly!
And I admit you make my senses wild.
I know sometimes I might act and look foolish,
I admit, I admit
I'll be your fool as long
As you are mine, yes mine, just mine, alright, mine, yes mine, just mine.
Just mine
