"Phantasm"

"Believe in me, for I am the one who gives salvation Bow to me, give me your faith and you shall receive"

Down! on your knees dutifully kissing holy ass
Lured! by a phantasm rotting your minds

The omnipotency once bestowed upon him
Is now tearing you apart
Like a puppet on a string you're slaves to, a master

Believing is seeing, blind devotion has taken
Away your reason
As holy bitches of the father and the son
You've succumbed to a fantasy

Bastardized by oppressive filth
You spread his divine disease
"Live by the holy words of god
If you resist I'll shove them up your ass"

Phantasm
In the phantasm we trust
Phantasm
Praise the Phantasm

Someday your bubbles will burst
And your wine will turn to water
Witness the true miracles of religion
Oppression and meaningless slaughter

Fear him
For he's the one who makes you suffer
