Ive been having bad dreams lately
I always end up dead Ive been hearing messages sent just outside my head when I stop this shivering Ill take you from this room theres a great awakening and Im gonna wake up soon

I cant lose ya, lose ya, lose ya
I take one step back and you throw me clear
I cant lose ya, lose ya, lose ya, and just like that, you disappear again its getting late I must be home before the stroke of 12 and theres no trouble in this place that we cant find ourselves Ive read your diaries and still cant find a cure not much but seems to me wont see you anymore

Ive been keeping notebooks in my head all the people who notice when Im dead everybody loves you once youre dead guess Ill just go fishing with my dad
