I recite what the people wanna hear like its yall life...

Cuz I done made it from the struggles to the mothership...

Now I'm at the podium, zoned and ya lovin it...

..They see the fact that I made it through the worst weather...

Settled in the storm, matter fact I'll do em one better...

Cuz from the ground up, I'ma see the crowd jump...

We gon' see the clouds run, let em know its our sun...

And we ain't lettin up, fallen but we gettin up...

Harvest what we wanna from the arms till they pressed up...

Press ya luck till the stress erupts...

And its like we can't sleep cuz the rest is done...

And theres, no plummetin..we gonna run em in...

Call the top lotion when we there we gon rub it in...

..Right witchya, nah, its not fiction...

Stop n just listen, rock with conviction...

..No risk, lets the minutes tick...

Until the symptoms stick and let the sickness hit...

Cuz I'ma, lead on till I can't cuz I got to...

Ride for the cause cuz its all that I drive for...

-My fault..I might seem a bit cocky...

But I feel like I move to the theme of rocky...

Just a little more focused..more hope..

-That the slope that we on get a little more open...

And cope with the fact that we strugglin to get in it...

Or we just holdin back the big finish...

..Take ya pick, let em, stress the details...

..How could we fail and rep like we will...

Wet from the sweat, from the rain, and the blood...

That we poured for the sons with the pain, from the love...

And its suttin that we can't take back cuz its not...

Like before us they ain't do the same and the clock...

-Ain't, stop for them, so it, won't for us...

And we can't turn back, so it, goes a must...

Like it, must go on, so I must lead on...

And breathe on so the next nigga breathes as strong...

Until I'm, leavin, that'll put em in a bad place...

Cuz they can't do me, thats a bad taste...

..No mouthmash, gotta take ya hats off...

Gotta see I did what I did cuz they backed off...

And I'ma keep on doin what I got to...

Bring em to the top, can't stop till I got proof...

..Got rhyme, got reason, breathin...

So I'ma lead em...thats meaning...

[closer x5]

Somebody that nobody can be...

Wanna follow, thats a leader and thats me!...
