They told me be careful
They said be weary of you
They warn persistence is the fatal flaw

I find myself waiting
Find myself hoping that you?
One day fall into my open arms

But it? ok, you can just call me friend
Even though I mind I?I just take the backseat again
In the end I? here
In the end just sit and stare
The season change not making way
As I? just waiting waiting waiting for you

But I?e been here a time or two
Like trying to fight the dying breath
Why is every step I take so damn hard

I?e got some battle wounds from this
I?e got the sinking feeling in my skin
I? getting tired of the night
Just waiting for the light

But it? ok, you can just call me friend
Even though I mind I?I just take the backseat again
In the end I? here
In the end just sit and stare
The season change not making way
As I? just waiting waiting waiting for you

But it? ok, you can just call me friend
Even though I mind I?I just take the backseat again
In the end I? here
In the end just sit and stare
The season change not making way
As I? just waiting waiting waiting for you

They said be weary of you
They warn persistence is the fatal flaw
