"Rat"

We only have one life, one world, one way to breathe,
We're polluting all the water and killing all the trees
Word to the wise, look at what is left
I knew that you that you that you already have!
Everyone tries,
To beat everyone else,
In a rat race,
That no one understands,
Everyone tries,
To beat everyone else,
In a rat race,
That no one understands,
We only have our friends, our home, our way of life
Making holes in the earth, fill it with toxic waste
Trading oxygen for home furnishing,
I knew that you that you that you already have!
Everyone tries,
To beat everyone else,
In a rat race,
That no one understands,
Everyone tries,
To beat everyone else,
In a rat race,
That no one understands!
