[Stanley]

Mr. Garrison, Can I ask you a question

[Mr. Garrison]

Of course Stanely, what is it?

[Stanely]

What is a.... homosexual?

[Mr. Garrison]

Oh, well Stanly, I guess you came to the right person,
sit down.

Stanely, gay people... well gay people are evil, evil right down

to their cold black hearts which pump not blood like yours and

mine but rather a thick vomitus oil which oozes thru their rotten

vains and clots in their pea-sized brains which becomes the cause of their nuasious patterens of vilolent behaviour.

Do

you understand?

[Stanly]

I guess...

[Mr. Garrison]

Good, Im glad we could have this little talk Stanley,
now, you

go out and practise football like a good little hetersexual
